Treasurer's report was accepted as presented.

Ted Hill presented preliminary review of 2021 budget. This was for information and comments only. No decision was made. Approval of the budget will be at the March Vestry meeting.

Bob Robbins moved and Steve Rerych seconded the motion to award JB'S Heating and Cooling the 2021 maintenance contract at a price not to exceed $5,500.00. With the understanding a discussion will be held to determine the number of inspections this will include. Motion Passed.

Fr. J. informed the Vestry in person worship would resume on Palm Sunday. Number of participants will be limited to 25 per service. The number of services and time of services has not been decided yet. Fr.J also said they are working on plans for Easter Sunday.

Bob Robbins moved a Resolution with Steve Rerych seconding in support of Fr. J.'s plan for in person worship starting on Palm Sunday.

Motion
Pass.

Fr. J. reminded the Vestry that May 9, 2021 would be the Annual meeting and Vestry election.

That day is Rogation Days, which is Blessing of the Crops. Also called Blessing of the Fields. Parishioners will be asked to bring the seeds they received for Ash Wednesday to the Annual Meeting so they can be planted around the Community Garden.

Fr. J. informed the Vestry they will be receiving an Assessment Survey. The survey will ask the Vestry to discuss what they see as strengths, weakness and possibilities of Calvary.

Vestry was informed that the Grounds Committee would do mapping of the cemetery.

Calvary staff will hold a staff retreat day on Monday February 22, 2021.

Bob Robbins and Steve Rerych offered a Resolution of gratitude and support to Bonnie Williams for her contribution to Calvary and endorsement of her future goals in the Church. This was approved by consensus.

Meeting was adjourned till the next regular scheduled meeting on March 15, 2021.
